Iowa Lakeside Laboratory and Regents Resource Center

Company Overview

Lakeside Lab is a partnership of Iowa's three state universities, established in 1909 to provide summer courses and research opportunities for college students. Environmental studies have long been the main focus, but the Lab recently expanded its mission to include writing, the arts, and economic development. The Lab's audience has also grown to include non-credit students of all ages, and programs are now offered year round. Located on 140 acres on West Lake Okoboji, the Lab is a very naturalistic place with woods, prairies and wetlands. It is also a historic district with 12 structures on the National Register of Historic Places, including five stone laboratories constructed by the Civilian Conservation Corps during the Great Depression.
