Spencer Kiwanis After Five and SCT Playhouse Announces New Flood Disaster Relief Program: “Sweet Dreams For Spencer”

Spencer, Iowa, July 15, 2024: The Spencer Kiwanis After Five Club is partnering with the SCT Playhouse Basil & Mildred Deegan Children’s Theatre thanks to a grant from the Clay County Community Foundation with a program we are calling, “Sweet Dreams for Spencer”.

Our goal is to provide replacement household items to kids (ages: infant to 17) that were destroyed by the recent flooding that has impacted the Spencer and surrounding Northwest Iowa Communities.

With the “Sweet Dreams for Spencer” program, we plan to provide the following:

- A twin or full size mattress
- Bed frame and headboard
- Bedding: sheets, pillows, and comforter
- A book for bedtime stories
- A small stuffed tiger

Spencer After Five Kiwanis is a local group of like-minded volunteers who strive to make a difference for local youth and families. Our club focuses specifically on kids and we have been successful in providing college scholarships and community programs that are specific to kids. We are a part of a global network of clubs and members who partner with each other and with organizations whose missions align with ours – to serve kids who need us most. Program Partners include: Spencer After Five Kiwanis, The Basil & Mildred Deegan Children’s Theatre at Spencer Community Theatre, The Clay County Community Foundation, #SpencerReads, and the Spencer Public Library.

For more information and to access our simple application form, please visit the SCT Playhouse Box Office, Spencer Public Library, or Speed Printers offices.

If you would like to help us bring sweet dreams to Spencer kids, please contact: TJ Johnson at 612-548-1603 or Alisha Bernardy at 612-524-9402.
